Mary Youngren Wins Popularity Contest

SUPPORTERS OF A. W. S. PRESIDENT IN RESERVE TILL FRIDAY DEADLINE

Students Pledge Rest Of Quota; Show To Raise Balance

Tied for last place at the close of Thursday's voting, Miss Mary Youngren, president of the A.W.S., was elected the most popular person on the campus by a swirl of voting in the closing minutes of the contest Friday. She polled a total of 2183 votes.

TEN TO GO
Only a few minutes remained before one o'clock, at which time the contest was to be declared closed, when the final rush started. It became evident that the Youngren cohorts had been holding off until the last minute. Bill Moore, himself a candidate, arrived with $21.00 which was all voted on a single candidate. This sum, coming from sources which Bill refused to reveal, decided the issue.

George Downing, committee chairman, announced that all the rest of the results were destroyed because it was felt that someone's feelings might be hurt.

He stated, however, that second place went to Kay Epps and third spot to Burt Watson although he was unable to divulge the exact number of votes that accompanied these positions.

As the result of her victory, Miss Youngren was awarded a sweater, with the compliments of Roos Brothers.

PLEDGE REMAINDER
On Friday $101.00 was contributed. (Continued on page four)

Spartans Turn OUT TO SEE Lumberjacks

When the Southern Pacific special poured its burden of loyal Humboldt rooters onto San Jose last Friday afternoon, the San Jose State band and a goodly representation of Spartans were on hand to bid them an appropriate welcome.

Amid much confusion a parade was organized and finally headed into the heart of San Jose led by the bands of both institutions, accompanied by considerable blowing of horns and the cannon-like reports of exhausts, which all reminded the good citizens of our fair metropolis that silence is only a temporary thing, and collegiates no end vociferous.

Moving down San Antonio, the parade turned left on First and proceeded to the Sainte Claire Hotel, the designated headquarters of the Humboldt students, traffic being terribly demoralized in that vicinity—much to its general annoyance.

All was a success, the rally committee arranging what few details there were, and entertainment not expected was rendered by the little gentleman of mysterious origin who was slightly confused as to time and place, but who possessed remarkable potentialities in the way of leading yells, bands, and traffic.

La Torre Studio Vacated; Proofs In Publications

Photographers Return To Oakland; Staff Completes Details

The mammoth job of photographing hundreds of students whose pictures will appear in the 1936 La Torre finished for this quarter, Coleman Studio photographers have returned to their Oakland office, and the temporary studio on the campus is again the A.W.S. lounge.

Proofs may be called for this week at the La Torre desk in room 17, the Publications Office, states Miss Kathryn Epps, editor of the annual. Hours are from 8 to 5, and the staff urges immediate attention to selection of pictures, since this is usually the most difficult step to complete satisfactorily before makeup of the yearbook is started.

Photographers finished their scheduled two-week period of La Torre picture service on November 15, remaining several days last week for re-sittings and photographing of late students.

It has not yet been determined whether the studios will locate on the campus next quarter, but they are scheduled to return in the spring for more La Torre picture work.

ART DEPARTMENT DISPLAYING WORK BY MILLS COLLEGE

An exhibition of outstanding art students' work from Mills College is being shown this week in room 1 of the Art building.

"I have seen many exhibitions of art student work in Germany, but I have a feeling that this group is one of the best I have ever seen," stated Dr. Alfred Neumeyer, art authority from the University of Berlin.

"It is interesting to observe in the drawing of the students a complete synchronization of modern European art. It might be unconscious, but the work of as in California their works show Matisse, Picasso, and Kalkinski are not done in vain if so far away a productive influence."

The group of drawings being exhibited are all contemporary in spirit and include still life studies, landscapes, nudes, and portraits.

Of note, is the presence in the display of two jesso panels. Jesso is a very old medium that has discarded for centuries but has recently again come into popular use among artists.

Mr. John French of the Art department was influential in bringing the exhibit to San Jose.

Card Stunts Inaugurated For Thanksgiving Day Tilt

Rally Chairman In Temporary Absence

Joyce Grimsley, Sparta's attractive rally chairman, who is under the care of physicians at her home in Oakland. When this picture was taken, Joyce was smiling encouragement at her committee. For the first time, it is a really unified organization—costume and all. Members are the boys and girls who wear handsome blue barrel sweaters at all the games and rallies.

Joyce Grimsley, Rally Chairman, Under Care Of Physicians at Home

Joyce Grimsley, secretary of the senior class, and the first co-ed rally chairman in San Jose State's history, left Saturday for her home in Oakland, where she is now convalescing from a recent illness which has kept her out of school for some time.

REVIVES SPIRIT

Miss Grimsley is personally responsible for the decided upswing in spirit on the campus this year, having organized the efficient and unified Spartan Rally Committee and supervised its colorful fall program.

The major part of her college work complete, the popular co-ed was compelled, under physician's orders, to leave school temporarily. She is expected to return to the campus after the Thanksgiving holiday.

COMMITTEE FINISHES

Since only one rally remains on Miss Grimsley's originally scheduled fall program, details will be completed by her committee, under the general direction of Elizabeth Simpson, Calvin Sides, Charles (Continued on Page Four.)

Rally Committee Urges Cooperation In New Device For Rooters

Three days remain before the last home game for the Spartans on Thanksgiving Day, and the rally committee is completing plans for the first attempt at "big-time" card stunts in the history of the college to add to the festive color of the holiday.

In order to have pronounced success in this initial effort, the rally committee points out, the fullest cooperation of all students must be secured. A capacity crowd is expected to view the clash between Spartans and the powerful invading Aztecs of San Diego State, and the clock-like precision necessary to produce the best show for the crowd could be obtained by heeding the following suggestions, the rally men point out.

The special section blocked out on the east side is for the exclusive seating of students, and all students are urged to occupy these seats.

A series of four huge colored pictures, made by the manipulation of the orange and blue cards, are tentatively scheduled, and the rally men emphasize the point that white shirts for men and white blouses and dresses for coeds must be worn to give the desired contrast and effect.

For those who shy of the supposedly intricacies of shuffling the human-made pictures, the committee points out that the handling of the cards is simple. Clear directions are printed on every card.

Several spectacular surprises are also planned to be revealed in sleight-of-hand fashion for game time, they state.

Pre-Legal Club To Present Senator

Senator Herbert C. Jones will speak on the future possibilities of the practice of law as a source of income at the Pre-Legal Club meeting held today at noon.

Included in the talk will be a description of some of his experiences in practicing law in San Jose for the past 30 years.

Senator Jones is a graduate of the San Jose High school and of Stanford University. During the last twenty-two years of his law practice he has been a state senator. At the present time he is chairman of the senate Judiciary committee.

Anyone interested in the subject is invited to attend the meeting in room 11 at 12:30 today.

SECOND HALF POWER GIVES STATE 25 TO 6 WIN OVER INVADERS

Stockdale Scores Two Touchdowns To Star With Cannell

By STEVE MURDOCK
Slashing out with a belated three touchdown blast of second half power, San Jose State's football squad continued its winning ways before a slim audience of 2000 souls in Spartan Stadium Friday afternoon by defeating a heretofore unbeaten Humboldt State eleven 25-6.

Battled to a standstill for nearly two full quarters by the invaders, who were playing under the inspiration of a contingent of 500 rooters from Eureka, Coach Dud DeGroot's Spartans capitalized on two blocked kicks to gain a touchdown minutes before the first half ended and then came back to blast over two scores in the third period and one in the fourth as the out-weighted Humboldt men wilted under the combined force of San Jose's attack and superior reserve strength.

SPARTAN STARS SCORE
Jimmy Stockdale came back to Spartan grid wars with a flourish to tally two of the four touchdowns and lead Watson and Lewis in the day's scoring parade.

However, it was the brilliant play of George Cannell at guard that set the stage for the first score which sparked the Spartans from lethargy to smashing second-half activity.

With but two minutes left to go in the first half, Fred Moore of Humboldt attempted to punt from his own 20 yard stripe on third down.

Cannell was through to block the kick cleanly, and the ball went out of bounds on the four yard line after a Humboldt man had touched it giving the Lumberjacks possession.

Once again Moore attempted to punt and once again Cannell was through to block it with Jackson (Continued on page three)

Pledges Will Be WOUND UP ON Tuesday Evening

Culminating a series of devices which have subjected Sigma Kappa Delta neophytes to assorted jeers, ridicule, and embarrassment, final pledge services will be conducted Tuesday at 7:30 by the journalism fraternity at the home of Charles Leong, 147 Carrie street.

President Thelma Vickers will officiate at the ceremonies, which will center about Ora Lindquist, Dick Bertrandias, Leona Pruett, and Raymond Wallace, the pledges. At the conclusion of the initiation, new members will be the guests of the fraternity at dinner.

Faculty members Dwight Bentel and Carl Holliday, and John Felice, honorary member, have been invited to witness the initiation.

For the past week pledges have been performing the traditional Sigma Kappa Delta shoe-shining service, and wearing lead slugs which read: "I am a Sigma Kappa Delta pledge." They may be identified today as the individuals carrying large cardboard boxes, contents of which will reveal themselves later.

Let 'Em Eat Cake

By RAYMOND WALLACE

Another contribution has arrived via the grapevine route. I am printing it because of the excellent psychological study it makes.

Some women do not seem to need
A husband, yet I'm told
They're good at closing windows down
On mornings when it's cold!

Now obviously this verse is not worth printing for any intrinsic value it may have; its worth lies in the following facts: I know the girl who wrote it, and I know her husband, and he isn't good for anything.

HUMPH! (EDITORS' OPINION)

Here is another poem, manifestly superior, which is important for the loveliness of its sweet and simple thought, the serene beauty of its language, and the pleasant rhythm of its rhyme scheme.

More darn fun!
Maniac with shotgun;
More people killed,
More blood spilled—
Me without my knife, fork, and spoon—
Oh, yum!

CAT-NIPPED?

Once again the Spartan Daily comes through with a demonstration of the inefficiency of the police. Why should the discovery of crime be left to newspaper men? WHY AREN'T THE POLICE ON THE JOB?

We refer to the discovery by one of our reporters of the sickening tragedy of the disappearance of the kittens. The patient old black mother cat who lives in the quad between the art building and the auditorium has a semi-annual batch of kittens. WHY ARE NONE OF THESE KITTENS EVER SEEN ABOUT THE BUILDING?

The Spartan Daily has uncovered the crime; it now remains for the police to discover the culprit. DO THE KITTENS GO TO THE BIOLOGY DEPARTMENT OR THE CAFETERIA?

THE EARLY BIRD?

Again the Spartan Daily exposes the incompetence of the police. I demand protection. Last Friday I was invited to the zoology laboratory to witness the dissection of a flatworm. The instruments were prepared with great care, light properly adjusted, and microscopes unslung. Then everyone turned to me with a sort of expectant look. It made me a little uncomfortable.

"When are you going to begin?" I asked.

"If you'll just lie down on the table," someone murmured.

WHERE ARE THE POLICE?

Hither, Yon, & Back

By RANDY FITTS

Reminiscences of the World War brought my mind a story I once heard concerning a pig which was popular at that time. One of the best pluggers was having dinner at a friend's when he noticed one of the kiddies playing with a toy pig which gave out a tune when its tail was tweaked. By some low cunning he managed to swipe the animal and lug it triumphantly home.

About a week later "My Buddy" made its appearance and became one of the most popular songs of that day and now. Incidentally the song which furnished the theme for this American song was a German-made toy.

Speaking of song writers reminds me that new and startling compositions have this morning emerged from the pen of Duke Ellington. They are "Delta Serenade" and "In a Sentimental Mood".

"MASSACHUSETTS MOON"

And speaking of Ellington reminds me that I got an idea for a ditty called "Massachusetts Moon"—if I could only find something to rhyme with Massachusetts! And who among you smartsters has ever wondered why the Southern states get all the breaks when it comes to moons and stars? Did you ever hear a songwriter who wanted to "go back to dear old Rhode Island"? Here's a coupla ideas for the Canadian boys to mull over. How about a ballad called "Manitoba Mama"? "Toronto Tessie"?

EGAD, "HOW YA FEELIN', OPHELIA?"

Last year I had a swell idea for a theme song for Hamlet. It was called "How Ya Feelin' Ophelia?" and would have been a natural for a spot where they drag her out of the river—or did they? Anyway I was telling Mr. Gillis about it when somebody pushed me outa the office. I'm sure he never did understand. And this is what I have an idea! Boy, oh boy! 'Twas a theme for Macbeth called "Which little Witch are—?" did you notice the third witch from the left that play? Wasn't she a knockout? I'll get her out plenty for this, but I'm started now and can't stop. And besides, if I don't Wallace will be out that stuff he writes and—! Well, well, I see, where were we? Oh, yes. The Peanut Vendor has a baby brother—"El Caramelero", the Candy Vendor. Probably be a flop—all these fellows are. Thass all.

WATER POLO TEAM WINNER

AQUA POLOISTS DEFEAT HIGHLY-TOUTED S.F. 'O' CLUB AGGREGATION, 4-2

Sparta's water poloists rose to great heights and drowned Old Man Jinx, and incidentally the Olympic Club, in the choppy waves of Spartan plunge Friday night.

The strong State junior varsity, or first string, finally grew tired of losing conference games by one point, and swept through the highly touted Olympian jayvees for a 4-2 victory.

Fired by their first captain, center back Bill Draper, the Spartan amphibians presented a tight defense, and broke through for points when they were needed.

DRAPER SCORES

Draper opened the scoring after several minutes in the first half and added another score later in the initial period to cop high point honors for the evening's festivities.

With the count 2-0 in favor of the collegians, the clubmen began to swing into action and tallied when Brisetti broke through for a score.

Burton Smith, San Jose center forward or sprint man, sent the leather sphere through the fingers of the Club goalie, and the half ended with the black-capped Spartans on the favorable side of a 3-1 situation.

STATE HOLDS LEAD

The second half saw the Washington Square water dogs fighting to hold their coveted lead over the team that had beaten them 5-4 in an overtime struggle in San Francisco, earlier in the season.

Jerry Tuxford, State's right back, scored the lone point for Sparta in the second half and Knuker whizzed in the lone goal for the Olympians.

Coach Charlie Walker's defense clicked in this swimfest as it has never clicked before and the Frisco men found this defense, and Ray Stager, San Jose goalie, well nigh invulnerable.

The weaker Spartan senior varsity, a second string, was defeated by the crack Olympic Club varsity by a score of 7-1 in an abbreviated dunking spree.

Howard Withycombe, State center forward, put the solitary point on the San Jose side of the ledger in the first half.

S.F. DONS BEAT SPARTANS 5-0 IN SOCCER FINALE

SAN DIEGO TO SHOW TOUGH OUTFIT HERE ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Aiming to leave not even a pebble unturned in his efforts to make San Jose's season a success by upsetting San Diego State's powerful Aztecs here Thursday, Coach Dud DeGroot started preparations for the battle yesterday morning at 8 a. m. when he marshalled his squad out for a little Sunday practice session.

CALLAND SUCCESS

Leo Calland, in his first year at San Diego State, has turned out a powerful team that catapulted itself into Pacific coast limelight by beating both Loyola's powerful Lions and Redland's vaunted air raiders in the space of one week.

Dumping Loyola in an Armistice Day upset, the Aztecs came back to beat the "passingest" team on the coast on Saturday by the simple expedient of also throwing passes.

Now, with a week's rest, the Aztecs, who have been beaten only by Occidental and Whittier this year will come north Thursday primed to finish off the Spartans.

FRAME ANOTHER TEBBS

They have an end by the name of Joe Frame whom they claim is as good as Whittier's Danny Tebbs, and that's pretty good.

Johnny Butler, a 170 pound running guard, is, however, the star of the Aztec line. It is claimed he could make any team on the coast.

Charles "Tiger" Lee, a 170 pound fullback, is probably the most valuable player in the Aztec backfield although Calland has a host of capable secondary men.

Lee is the best line-plunger and also the deadliest tackler on the squad. He is a track star and former San Diego county golf champ.

recovering this time on the one yard line.

STOCKDALE SCORES

Two plays and a penalty lost seven yards, and then Hines passed to Jimmy Stockdale for the day's first tally. Souza missed the try-for-point.

The third period saw the tempo of the action increase as three touchdowns, two for San Jose and one for Humboldt, were registered in a space of 23 plays.

The quarter had barely started before the Spartans organized and completed their longest scoring drive of the day, a 49 yard march.

WATSON GETS ONE

Hines, Watson, and Pura took it to the 21 in six plays, and then Watson broke loose around his own left end to out run the northerners to the end zone for the second Spartan tally. Argilla's kick was wide.

Humboldt's lone score came with surprising suddenness six plays later.

Smith of Humboldt recovered a San Jose lateral thrown by Hines on his own 39 yard line.

On first down, Ferin threw a 30 yard pass to Neilson who fumbled when he was tackled by Pura only to have Farber scoop the ball up and race the remaining 30 yards to the vital area. Smith's attempt for the extra point failed.

LEWIS ADDS ANOTHER

Four plays later, Ferin fumbled and Wing recovered for San Jose on Humboldt's 17 yard line.

Argilla made two, a pass by Stockdale fell incomplete, and then big "Bull" Lewis put on the pressure and smashed his way ruthlessly 15 yards to pay dirt. Argilla managed to convert this one and the count stood 19-6.

The last score came early in the fourth period as Lewis intercepted Ferin's pass on the Humboldt 35 and lateraled out to Stockdale who set the stage by running it back to the 25.

Stockdale and Peach made it a first down on the 12, and then Lewis passed to Peach on the three for a nine yard gain.

Two plays later, Stockdale drove over guard on a reverse from Lewis to score his second touchdown of the game.

Bruce Daily got his long-awaited chance to convert and didn't come anywhere near the crossbar.

Pelota Boys End Season With 5-0 Defeat By Dons

Winding up their season without any blaze of glory, San Jose State's soccermen dropped their second 5-0 defeat to the conference champion San Francisco university team at Spartan Field Saturday morning.

DONS DEMONSTRATE

The score corresponded exactly with the first contest held at San Francisco earlier in the season. Scoring twice in the third quarter and once in each of the other periods, the Dons only proved a little more conclusively their right to the league title they had won before venturing for 1 to meet the Spartans for the second time.

San Jose pulled up in last place in the conference race by virtue of their loss to Stanford Wednesday, so a win over S.F.U. Saturday would have made no difference in the final standings.

FIVE MEN GO

Mel Hickman, center half; Bob Doerr and Carl Robinson, wings; Charlie York, inside; and Mark Masson, goalie, are the Spartans who wound up their soccer careers in Saturday's tussle.

Manutius Of Venice Considered One OF WORLD'S BEST PRINTERS; Popularized Greek, Latin Works

The greatest Italian printer of the fifteenth century and undoubtedly one of the finest the world has ever known, was Aldus Manutius of Venice.

Manutius is the second of the world famous printers in the series of articles on the history of printing whose material is being collected by a library class under the direction of Miss Dora Smith, member of the college library department.

The fame of Manutius rests less on his actual printing but upon the efforts he made for popularizing literature, and bringing cheap, yet well-produced books within reach of many.

He had early become interested in the Greek and Latin classics and conceived the idea of printing all the important and unpublished classics of ancient Greece.

Before this time, Greek books had been printed in types modeled on the square style of lettering used for ancient books. This made a beautiful and legible page, but each letter took so much space that the books were costly.

Aldus proceeded to create a type of his own. This was called the "Aldino," better known today as the Italic type.

The great space which this type saved permitted a publication of the small pocket editions which could be printed and sold very cheaply.

Coming at a time of large cumbersome books it marked a great step forward in book production.

The popularity of his small cheap books was so enormous that he suffered a great deal from pirated editions and forgeries.

Manutius then appealed to the Venetian government which granted him a monopoly for 20 years, thus becoming the first copyright in history.

For his mark, he had the sign of the anchor and the dolphin and which bore the motto "make haste slowly."

This symbol will always stand as the symbol of one of the greatest artists that the world has known.

Coming Institute To Aid Teachers

A full week's program of training in council leadership will be offered to teachers and prospective teachers when the Santa Clara County Boy Scouts organization sponsors an institute from December 2 to 9 inclusive, in the college Science building.

A general elementary course, leading to the rank of scout master or assistant scout master; and specialized courses such as nature study work for advanced leaders, are among the features to be offered.

Dr. P. Victor Peterson, chairman of the Natural Science department and director of leadership training for the Scouts, urges San Jose State college students to take the opportunity of acquiring training in this field. Ability to lead such groups as scouts, he says, is often the deciding factor in employment of a teacher.
